

Many Hearts, One Voice

Words and Music: Steve Macdonald, Copyright 2000

(Capo 3)
G Em G
Once again we've come to gather
Em C D
Greeting friends, both new-found and old
C D
Sharing songs that laugh
G Em
Even sharing songs that cry
Am D
All night through, emotions high

G Em G
Many lives we bring to bear here
Em C D
Many creeds, many ways to be
C D
Performers, listeners
G Em
Along with those who tape it all
Am D
All belong, and hear the call...

Chorus:

G Em
Sing—let your heart be in it
C D
Dance—let your soul ring out
G Em
Sing—raise the ceiling higher
C D
Dance—remove all doubt
C D
We belong together
G Em
Our paths the same by choice
C D G
Many hearts, one voice

Razor wit, and sharper eyes
Seeing irony even when disguised
Nothing sacred do we hold
New tune or recycled old
Laughing as the songs unfold

Dragons, fairies, elves, and unicorns
Whole worlds there of whimsy born
Songs of fantasy
Forests, castles, skies, and seas
A magic real to you and me

Bridge:

Em C G
Frontiers stretch out above us
Em C A
Dreams that fly with the stars
C D
Inspire and lift our spirits
G Em
Fly through countless galaxies
C Am D
The Harbors wait—feel their call

Chorus

Singing songs that touch the heart strings
Morose or tender, styled by Kipling
Through catharsis pain
Emotion shared, soul-touching gain
Heart to heart, mind to mind

All the world shares a symphony
Dreaming dreams, making thoughts come real
Bound together by many hearts
We all strive to do our part
Celebrate and join the song—

Chorus

The music is notated in B-flat to allow for a capo up of three half-steps. This is the key in which Steve's WorldDream recording is being made.
